Training Log:
Pecuniary Interests	August 2020	Employee Sheffield City Council
Personal Profile: I currently work within the Strategy and Commissioning Service for Sheffield City Council. I lead and project-manage a portfolio of different projects and activities, which are around the areas of Digital Learning, Employment and Enterprise. This includes taking projects from needs identification, through inception, to securing funding, delivering and evaluating. I also lead and contribute to activity around developing digital skills for productivity within the People Portfolio of the Council. This is done through a range of projects and activities which seek to develop increased skills and understanding, for example work on helping others use Video Conferencing and use of Microsoft Teams. I am the Local Authority representative on further projects where high-quality learning experiences are set up with the close involvement of economic sector based professionals. By virtue of my long-standing association with the worlds of Sport and Digital, I am an active member of the Governing Body for Sheffield's second University Technical College, which is located on the Olympic Legacy Park. Another part of my remit is to also prepare strategic advice, funding guidance and updated information for elected members and others. This is often on a diverse but inter-connected range of topics including Youth Engagement and Enrichment activities for Sheffield's young people. I am our City's representative and main contact for Eurocities - which is an association of over 130 European cities and the Erasmus+ and Horizon 2020 programmes. Communication Skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A broad range of coaching and mentoring skills built upon the experience of working positively with a range of Senior Leaders across the City. • The ability to communicate and achieve common strategic goals across a range of public and private sector organisations to provide deeper evaluation of their impact. • The sensitive use of communication strategies and branding of different organisations.
